

Friends of the Library

The Friends of the Library provides library benefits to library users who do not wish to become full museum members. (Museum membership includes Friends of the Library benefits.) While membership in the Friends of the Library does not include any museum benefits beyond those given to all area residents, it does include the following advantages:

- Be on the mailing list for library announcements and newsletters
- Enjoy Fine-Free library borrowing for items returned at the Canajoharie Library (Lost item charges still apply)
- Support library programs and activities
